Marketing Campaigns

Which 30% of the ad budget can go with the fewest lost sales? · Kaggle ad and A/B test data

Campaign: Campaign 1178 | Campaign 916 | Campaign 936

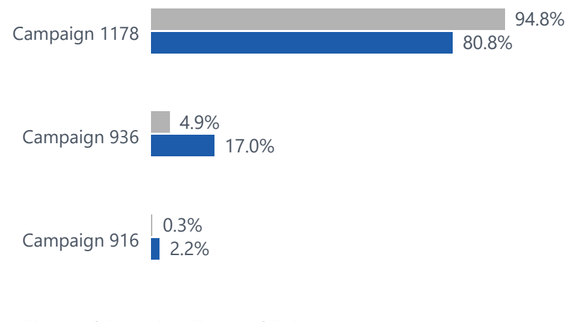

Age: All

Gender: Female | Male

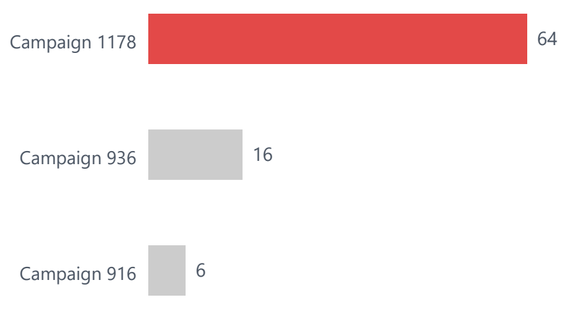

Ad Spend	Sales Made	Cost per Sale	Cost per Click	ROI
58,705	1,079	54.41	1.54	83.8%

Value of one sale (assumed): 100

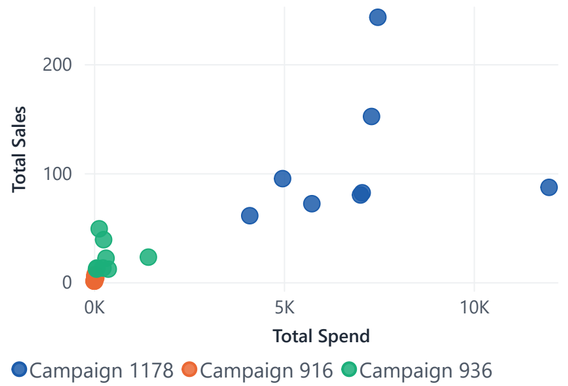

Campaign 1178 takes 95% of the spend and brings 81% of the sales

A sale costs 64 in Campaign 1178, against 16 and 6 in the other two

Women aged 45-49 in Campaign 1178 get the most spend and few sales

Verdict

The ads work: people who saw them bought 43% more often. Each 1 spent brought back 1.84, at 100 per sale.

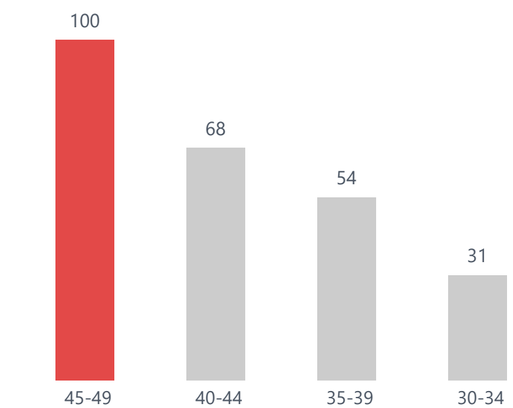

Recommendations

Campaigns: Campaign 1178 takes 95% of spend for 81% of sales, at 64 per sale.

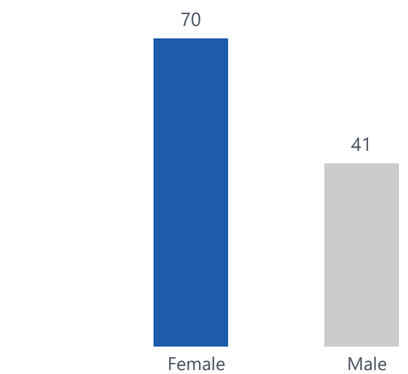

Audiences: women aged 40-49 in Campaign 1178 take 32% of spend for 15.5% of sales.

Our pick: stop those two segments. It meets the 30% cut and loses 167 sales, about half the loss of an equal cut.

Cost per sale triples with age, from 31 to 100

Ads shown to women cost 70 per sale, against 41 for men

Ads work: 2.55% of people who saw them bought, against 1.79%

